

Enable educators to support and promote children's health and provide children with a safe environment.

Educator wellbeing promotes health and safety outcomes for every child. Supported educators are better able to manage children's health and medical needs and ensure environments are safe and health-promoting.

