

Making Connections with Aboriginal Communities

Contact your Inclusion Support Agency (ISA) for further support in including and engaging with Aboriginal communities. The Inclusion and Professional Support Program is an initiative funded by the Australian Government to resource and support eligible child care services.