- a person authorised in the country where the document is being certified to certify /notarise documents
- a person accredited as a translator who is employed by an Australian overseas diplomatic mission.

The authorised person must clearly state on the front of each page of each document that it is a certified true copy of the original document. The person must sign and date each statement and provide their name and position. All document certifications must be completed in English. For further information on how to certify your documents please refer to the certifying documents information sheet.

Documents in a language other than English

If your supporting documents are in a language other than English, you will need to have them translated into English. If your documents are translated in Australia, the translator must be accredited by NAATI (National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters Ltd). You can locate your nearest NAATI accredited translator at the following website: www.naati.com.au.

You must provide a certified colour copy of both the original and translated document.

Privacy notice

Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA) will use the information you provide to make an assessment of your qualification/s and employment experience for the purpose of skilled migration. ACECQA may need to disclose personal information to some third parties, including educational institutions, to verify the information you have provided in the application. In the case of a complaint or a challenge to the decision, the Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA) may need to disclose some information to a review body, for example, an ombudsman, court or tribunal. Personal information will be used and stored in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988.

ACECQA's privacy policy is available on the ACECQA website.
